What's the story?

The story follows the extraordinary adventure of Bernard Jones, a brave yet overprotected small-town boy who dreams of exploring the world someday like his grandfather, a famous globe-trotting photographer and relic-hunter. That dream suddenly becomes a reality when Bernard mistakenly receives a magical ancient reading chair that once belonged to 14th century Mali Emperor Mansa Musa from his grandfather for his twelfth birthday. Controlling the mysterious old reading chair's secret powers with his imagination, Bernard transports himself from the boredom of his quiet bedroom into the wildest adventure of his life. He visits all corners of the globe before he inadvertently gets entangled in a dangerous mission to help his grandfather escape from a trio of ruthless thieves who are after the priceless magic chair in his possession. Bernard must be courageous, responsible, and creative to save his grandfather, keep the ancient relic safe, and get back home before his extra protective parents find out.
