What's the story?

All Bernard wanted to do while staying with his grandparents in Elmdale for the summer was work on his basketball skills to make the freshman team back home. But when greed and deception threaten to destroy the small basketball town's historic Elmdale Park and end its longstanding basketball tradition, Bernard takes action and attempts to form a team from a group of local misfits to win a big tournament to save it. Courage, skills, and determination shine as he and his team try to help restore the town's park, legacy, and tradition to its previous glory!
